

English B 1 Receptive skills: reading for gist and detail	English B 1 Receptive skills: reading for gist and detail	English B 1 Receptive skills: reading for gist and detail
What is the key difference between 'reading for gist' and 'reading for detail'?	Name two text features that help predict a text's purpose before close reading.	Which question type in a reading task most directly tests detail rather than gist? A 'What is this text mainly about?' B 'Who is the intended audience?' C 'On what date does the offer expire?' D 'What is the writer's overall tone?'
IB-ENGLISHB-1-1 CONCEPT	IB-ENGLISHB-1-2 CONCEPT	IB-ENGLISHB-1-3 MULTIPLE CHOICE
English B 1 Receptive skills: reading for gist and detail	English B 2 Receptive skills: listening for specific information	English B 2 Receptive skills: listening for specific information
In one sentence, explain why checking the question before reading the whole text saves time in a reading exam.	Why is note-taking in short phrases better than full sentences during a listening exam?	What should a candidate do during the reading time given before each audio text?
IB-ENGLISHB-1-4 PRACTICE	IB-ENGLISHB-2-1 CONCEPT	IB-ENGLISHB-2-2 CONCEPT
English B 2 Receptive skills: listening for specific information	English B 2 Receptive skills: listening for specific information	English B 3 Productive skills: the formal email or letter
A listening question asks 'How many people attended the event?' What kind of information should the listener focus on? A Opinions B A number C A place name D A time of day	Give one reason a listening answer might lose marks even if the right number was heard correctly.	When should a writer use 'Dear Sir or Madam' instead of a named greeting in a formal letter?
IB-ENGLISHB-2-3 MULTIPLE CHOICE	IB-ENGLISHB-2-4 PRACTICE	IB-ENGLISHB-3-1 CONCEPT
English B 3 Productive skills: the formal email or letter	English B 3 Productive skills: the formal email or letter	English B 3 Productive skills: the formal email or letter
Name two features that signal formal register in an email besides the greeting.	Which opening line is most appropriate for a formal complaint email? A Hey, quick question about my order... B I am writing to express my concern regarding... C So basically my order never arrived lol D What's up, just checking on my delivery	Write one formal opening sentence requesting information about opening hours.
IB-ENGLISHB-3-2 CONCEPT	IB-ENGLISHB-3-3 MULTIPLE CHOICE	IB-ENGLISHB-3-4 PRACTICE
English B 4 Productive skills: the blog post or article	English B 4 Productive skills: the blog post or article	English B 4 Productive skills: the blog post or article
What is the main tone difference between a blog post and a formal letter?	Give one structural feature that makes a blog post reader-friendly.	Which title is best suited to a blog post about learning to cook? A Culinary Skill Acquisition: A Report B How I Finally Stopped Burning Toast C Notice: Kitchen Safety Regulations D Undefined Cooking Document
IB-ENGLISHB-4-1 CONCEPT	IB-ENGLISHB-4-2 CONCEPT	IB-ENGLISHB-4-3 MULTIPLE CHOICE

English B 4 Productive skills: the blog post or article	English B 5 Productive skills: the opinion or argumentative essay (HL)	English B 5 Productive skills: the opinion or argumentative essay (HL)
Write one hook opening sentence for a blog post about starting a new hobby.	What must an HL opinion essay include that a simple personal opinion paragraph does not require?	Name two cohesive devices useful for linking arguments in an essay.
IB-ENGLISHB-4-4PRACTICE	IB-ENGLISHB-5-1CONCEPT	IB-ENGLISHB-5-2CONCEPT
English B 5 Productive skills: the opinion or argumentative essay (HL)	English B 5 Productive skills: the opinion or argumentative essay (HL)	English B 6 Interactive skills: the individual oral
Which sentence best introduces a counter-argument in an essay? A I really don't care what other people think. B Some may argue that remote learning offers greater flexibility. C This is obviously the only correct opinion. D Anyway, moving on to my next point.	Write one topic sentence for a paragraph arguing that homework should be reduced.	What are the two main parts of the individual oral assessment?
IB-ENGLISHB-5-3MULTIPLE CHOICE	IB-ENGLISHB-5-4PRACTICE	IB-ENGLISHB-6-1CONCEPT
English B 6 Interactive skills: the individual oral	English B 6 Interactive skills: the individual oral	English B 6 Interactive skills: the individual oral
Why should candidates avoid pure description of the photograph?	During the follow-up discussion, an examiner asks an unexpected question. What is the best strategy? A Repeat the prepared presentation word for word B Stay silent until a scripted answer comes to mind C Listen carefully and respond genuinely, asking for clarification if needed D Change the subject back to the image description	Give one sentence connecting a photo of a busy market to the theme of social organization.
IB-ENGLISHB-6-2CONCEPT	IB-ENGLISHB-6-3MULTIPLE CHOICE	IB-ENGLISHB-6-4PRACTICE
English B 7 Theme: identities	English B 7 Theme: identities	English B 7 Theme: identities
Name three sub-topics typically studied under the theme of identities.	Why should responses on this theme avoid purely factual lists?	Which statement best reflects the theme of identities in a spoken response? A 'The population of the city is two million.' B 'Wearing my grandmother's necklace makes me feel connected to my family history.' C 'The train departs at 9 a.m.' D 'Renewable energy is becoming cheaper.'
IB-ENGLISHB-7-1CONCEPT	IB-ENGLISHB-7-2CONCEPT	IB-ENGLISHB-7-3MULTIPLE CHOICE
English B 7 Theme: identities	English B 8 Theme: experiences	English B 8 Theme: experiences
Write one sentence linking a hobby to personal identity.	Name two sub-topics under the theme of experiences.	Why is tense range important when discussing this theme?
IB-ENGLISHB-7-4PRACTICE	IB-ENGLISHB-8-1CONCEPT	IB-ENGLISHB-8-2CONCEPT

English B 8 Theme: experiences	English B 8 Theme: experiences	English B 9 Theme: human ingenuity
Which sentence best narrates a personal experience with sensory detail? A 'I went on a trip.' B 'The salty sea air and the sound of gulls greeted me the moment I stepped off the ferry.' C 'Travel is generally considered educational.' D 'Airports have many gates.'	Write one sentence describing a childhood memory using the past continuous tense.	Name two sub-topics under the theme of human ingenuity.
IB-ENGLISHB-8-3MULTIPLE CHOICE	IB-ENGLISHB-8-4PRACTICE	IB-ENGLISHB-9-1CONCEPT
English B 9 Theme: human ingenuity	English B 9 Theme: human ingenuity	English B 9 Theme: human ingenuity
What should a strong response on this theme do beyond simply describing an invention?	Which question tests detail rather than gist about a text describing a new invention? A 'What is this text mainly about?' B 'What material is the device made of?' C 'What is the writer's opinion of technology in general?' D 'Who might be interested in reading this text?'	Write one sentence evaluating a possible risk of self-driving cars.
IB-ENGLISHB-9-2CONCEPT	IB-ENGLISHB-9-3MULTIPLE CHOICE	IB-ENGLISHB-9-4PRACTICE
English B 10 Theme: social organization	English B 10 Theme: social organization	English B 10 Theme: social organization
Name two sub-topics under the theme of social organization.	Why should a proposal-based task on this theme avoid vague statements?	Which sentence best fits a formal proposal about school rules? A 'Rules are just annoying, let's scrap them.' B 'I would like to propose a revision to the current attendance policy for the following reasons.' C 'idk maybe change the rules?' D 'Whatever, do what you want.'
IB-ENGLISHB-10-1CONCEPT	IB-ENGLISHB-10-2CONCEPT	IB-ENGLISHB-10-3MULTIPLE CHOICE
English B 10 Theme: social organization	English B 11 Theme: sharing the planet	English B 11 Theme: sharing the planet
Write one sentence proposing a change to a workplace policy.	Name two sub-topics under the theme of sharing the planet.	Why is distinguishing fact from opinion especially important on this theme?
IB-ENGLISHB-10-4PRACTICE	IB-ENGLISHB-11-1CONCEPT	IB-ENGLISHB-11-2CONCEPT
English B 11 Theme: sharing the planet	English B 11 Theme: sharing the planet	English B 12 Literary extract analysis in English B (HL)
In a news report about deforestation, which phrase signals opinion rather than fact? A 'Forest cover fell by 12% last year.' B 'I believe stronger laws are the only way forward.' C 'The report was published on Tuesday.' D 'Three countries signed the agreement.'	Write one sentence that clearly states an opinion, not a fact, about recycling policy.	What is the literary extract discussion in the HL individual oral based on?
IB-ENGLISHB-11-3MULTIPLE CHOICE	IB-ENGLISHB-11-4PRACTICE	IB-ENGLISHB-12-1CONCEPT

English B

12 Literary extract analysis in English B (HL)

Why is plot summary alone insufficient in this discussion?

IB-ENGLISHB-12-2

CONCEPT

English B

12 Literary extract analysis in English B (HL)

Which comment shows genuine literary analysis rather than plot summary?
A 'Then the character walks into the room and sits down.'
B 'The short, clipped sentences here mirror the character's growing anxiety.'
C 'This is chapter five of the book.'
D 'The character's name is mentioned twice.'

IB-ENGLISHB-12-3

MULTIPLE CHOICE

English B

12 Literary extract analysis in English B (HL)

Write one sentence analysing how a long, flowing sentence might reflect a calm mood in a literary extract.

IB-ENGLISHB-12-4

PRACTICE

English B 1 Receptive skills: reading for gist and detail	English B 1 Receptive skills: reading for gist and detail	English B 1 Receptive skills: reading for gist and detail
C. It asks for one precise, locatable fact rather than an overall impression.	Any two of: headline/title, layout or formatting (bullets, columns), images or captions, the source or publication type.	Gist reading targets the overall topic, purpose and tone of a text; detail reading locates specific, precise information such as names, dates or figures.
IB-ENGLISHB-1-3 ANSWER	IB-ENGLISHB-1-2 ANSWER	IB-ENGLISHB-1-1 ANSWER
English B 2 Receptive skills: listening for specific information	English B 2 Receptive skills: listening for specific information	English B 1 Receptive skills: reading for gist and detail
Read the questions carefully to predict likely vocabulary, topic and the type of information needed for each answer.	Audio plays at natural speed and cannot be paused, so short key-word notes let the listener keep pace and catch the next piece of information.	Model answer: knowing what to look for lets you scan directly for the relevant information instead of processing every sentence in full.
IB-ENGLISHB-2-2 ANSWER	IB-ENGLISHB-2-1 ANSWER	IB-ENGLISHB-1-4 ANSWER
English B 3 Productive skills: the formal email or letter	English B 2 Receptive skills: listening for specific information	English B 2 Receptive skills: listening for specific information
When the writer does not know the specific name of the recipient.	Model answer: if the number is written illegibly, confused with the wrong word, or does not answer the specific detail asked, such as giving a date instead of a quantity.	B. The question asks for a quantity, so the listener should focus on numerical information.
IB-ENGLISHB-3-1 ANSWER	IB-ENGLISHB-2-4 ANSWER	IB-ENGLISHB-2-3 ANSWER
English B 3 Productive skills: the formal email or letter	English B 3 Productive skills: the formal email or letter	English B 3 Productive skills: the formal email or letter
Model answer: 'I am writing to enquire about your organization's opening hours during the upcoming holiday period.'	B. It states the purpose formally and directly, matching the register of a complaint email.	Any two of: no contractions such as do not vs don't, no slang or idiomatic chat language, full grammatical sentences, formal connectors such as furthermore or therefore.
IB-ENGLISHB-3-4 ANSWER	IB-ENGLISHB-3-3 ANSWER	IB-ENGLISHB-3-2 ANSWER
English B 4 Productive skills: the blog post or article	English B 4 Productive skills: the blog post or article	English B 4 Productive skills: the blog post or article
B. It is engaging, personal and conversational, matching blog conventions.	Any one of: an engaging title, short paragraphs, sub-headings, a hook opening, or a closing invitation to comment.	A blog post uses a personal, conversational, first-person tone; a formal letter uses a consistently formal, impersonal register.
IB-ENGLISHB-4-3 ANSWER	IB-ENGLISHB-4-2 ANSWER	IB-ENGLISHB-4-1 ANSWER
English B 5 Productive skills: the opinion or argumentative essay (HL)	English B 5 Productive skills: the opinion or argumentative essay (HL)	English B 4 Productive skills: the blog post or article
Any two of: moreover, however, consequently, in contrast, furthermore, as a result.	A clear thesis statement, logically structured arguments with support, and acknowledgment of at least one counter-argument.	Model answer: 'I never thought a cheap set of watercolours could change my Sunday afternoons completely.'
IB-ENGLISHB-5-2 ANSWER	IB-ENGLISHB-5-1 ANSWER	IB-ENGLISHB-4-4 ANSWER

English B 6 Interactive skills: the individual oral	English B 5 Productive skills: the opinion or argumentative essay (HL)	English B 5 Productive skills: the opinion or argumentative essay (HL)
A short prepared presentation linking a photograph to a theme, followed by a follow-up discussion or conversation with the examiner.	Model answer: 'Reducing the amount of homework assigned would give students more time to develop practical skills outside the classroom.'	B. It formally signals an opposing viewpoint before the writer responds to it.
IB-ENGLISHB-6-1ANSWER	IB-ENGLISHB-5-4ANSWER	IB-ENGLISHB-5-3ANSWER
English B 6 Interactive skills: the individual oral	English B 6 Interactive skills: the individual oral	English B 6 Interactive skills: the individual oral
Model answer: 'This market shows how a community organizes the exchange of goods, reflecting shared social and economic systems.'	C. The discussion assesses spontaneous interaction, so genuine, flexible responses are required.	Because the assessment rewards interpretation and thematic connection, not just naming what is visible in the image.
IB-ENGLISHB-6-4ANSWER	IB-ENGLISHB-6-3ANSWER	IB-ENGLISHB-6-2ANSWER
English B 7 Theme: identities	English B 7 Theme: identities	English B 7 Theme: identities
B. It personally reflects on how an object connects to identity and belonging.	Because strong responses connect facts or examples to personal or cultural reflection on how identity is shaped, not just state information.	Any three of: lifestyle, health, personal values or beliefs, relationships, physical or psychological development.
IB-ENGLISHB-7-3ANSWER	IB-ENGLISHB-7-2ANSWER	IB-ENGLISHB-7-1ANSWER
English B 8 Theme: experiences	English B 8 Theme: experiences	English B 7 Theme: identities
Because narrating past events clearly requires distinguishing sequence, background and completed actions using different past tenses.	Any two of: travel, rites of passage, childhood memories, holidays or festivals, life transitions.	Model answer: 'Playing in a local football team every weekend has become a core part of how I see myself as part of my community.'
IB-ENGLISHB-8-2ANSWER	IB-ENGLISHB-8-1ANSWER	IB-ENGLISHB-7-4ANSWER
English B 9 Theme: human ingenuity	English B 8 Theme: experiences	English B 8 Theme: experiences
Any two of: inventions or technology, art, media, scientific innovation.	Model answer: 'I was building a sandcastle on the beach when a sudden wave washed it all away.'	B. It uses vivid sensory detail rather than a flat, general statement.
IB-ENGLISHB-9-1ANSWER	IB-ENGLISHB-8-4ANSWER	IB-ENGLISHB-8-3ANSWER
English B 9 Theme: human ingenuity	English B 9 Theme: human ingenuity	English B 9 Theme: human ingenuity
Model answer: 'One risk of self-driving cars is that software errors could cause accidents in situations the system was not trained to handle.'	B. It asks for one specific, locatable fact about the invention.	Evaluate its purpose, impact, and any risks or ethical considerations, not just describe what it is.
IB-ENGLISHB-9-4ANSWER	IB-ENGLISHB-9-3ANSWER	IB-ENGLISHB-9-2ANSWER
English B 10 Theme: social organization	English B 10 Theme: social organization	English B 10 Theme: social organization
B. It states a clear, formally worded proposal appropriate to a letter to administration.	Because strong responses give specific, realistic solutions with reasoning, which are more persuasive than general complaints.	Any two of: education, employment, law, community or social relationships and structures.
IB-ENGLISHB-10-3ANSWER	IB-ENGLISHB-10-2ANSWER	IB-ENGLISHB-10-1ANSWER

English B 11 Theme: sharing the planet	English B 11 Theme: sharing the planet	English B 10 Theme: social organization
Because texts on this theme often mix statistics or factual reports with the speaker's or writer's personal stance, and comprehension questions test whether the candidate can tell them apart.	Any two of: the environment or climate change, human rights, peace and conflict, global resource distribution.	Model answer: 'I would like to suggest that the company introduce flexible start times to accommodate employees with long commutes.'
IB-ENGLISHB-11-2ANSWER	IB-ENGLISHB-11-1ANSWER	IB-ENGLISHB-10-4ANSWER
English B 12 Literary extract analysis in English B (HL)	English B 11 Theme: sharing the planet	English B 11 Theme: sharing the planet
A short extract from one of the two literary works studied at Higher Level, discussed in connection to one of the five course themes.	Model answer: 'In my view, mandatory recycling should be enforced in every city, not left as a voluntary choice.'	B. 'I believe' explicitly marks a personal opinion rather than a verifiable fact.
IB-ENGLISHB-12-1ANSWER	IB-ENGLISHB-11-4ANSWER	IB-ENGLISHB-11-3ANSWER
English B 12 Literary extract analysis in English B (HL)	English B 12 Literary extract analysis in English B (HL)	English B 12 Literary extract analysis in English B (HL)
Model answer: 'The extended, unbroken sentence mimics the character's calm, unhurried state of mind as she watches the sunset.'	B. It analyses a specific language choice and connects it to meaning or effect.	Because the assessment rewards analysis of language, structural choices and thematic significance, not just retelling what happens.
IB-ENGLISHB-12-4ANSWER	IB-ENGLISHB-12-3ANSWER	IB-ENGLISHB-12-2ANSWER