

1º medio / Inglés Reading: evidence and inference What is the key strategy for reading: evidence and inference? 1M-ING-01-C CONCEPTO	1º medio / Inglés Reading: evidence and inference What is directly stated? A Camila is a teacher B The sensor worked C The experiment was dangerous D The sensor was expensive 1M-ING-01-A ALTERNATIVA	1º medio / Inglés Reading: evidence and inference Explain an inference about Camila's reaction and quote the precise detail that supports it. 1M-ING-01-D APLICACIÓN
1º medio / Inglés Listening: viewpoints What is the key strategy for listening: viewpoints? 1M-ING-02-C CONCEPTO	1º medio / Inglés Listening: viewpoints Texto para practicar (en la guía se escucha): I like online lessons for revision; however, I learn new experiments better in the laboratory. Which setting does the speaker prefer for new experiments? A Online B Laboratory C At home alone D No preference 1M-ING-02-A ALTERNATIVA	1º medio / Inglés Listening: viewpoints Texto para practicar (en la guía se escucha): I like online lessons for revision; however, I learn new experiments better in the laboratory. Summarise one advantage and one limitation of online lessons according to this speaker. 1M-ING-02-D APLICACIÓN
1º medio / Inglés Writing: opinion paragraph What is the key strategy for writing: opinion paragraph? 1M-ING-03-C CONCEPTO	1º medio / Inglés Writing: opinion paragraph Which word introduces contrast? A Because B However C For example D Therefore always 1M-ING-03-A ALTERNATIVA	1º medio / Inglés Writing: opinion paragraph Write 90–110 words: Should schools give students more outdoor learning? Give two reasons and one counterpoint. 1M-ING-03-D APLICACIÓN
1º medio / Inglés Speaking: mini presentation What is the key strategy for speaking: mini presentation? 1M-ING-04-C CONCEPTO	1º medio / Inglés Speaking: mini presentation Which word signals the final idea? A First B Second C In conclusion D Weekly 1M-ING-04-A ALTERNATIVA	1º medio / Inglés Speaking: mini presentation Prepare a one-minute talk on reducing waste at school: opening, two actions, evidence to measure success, closing. 1M-ING-04-D APLICACIÓN

1º medio / Inglés

Reading: evidence and inference

She was pleased or relieved; “smiled” after “three failed trials” supports it.

1M-ING-01-D

RESPUESTA

1º medio / Inglés

Reading: evidence and inference

B. The sensor worked

1M-ING-01-A

RESPUESTA

1º medio / Inglés

Reading: evidence and inference

A writer can imply an attitude without stating it directly. Separate the literal detail from an inference supported by that detail.

1M-ING-01-C

RESPUESTA

1º medio / Inglés

Listening: viewpoints

Useful for revision; less suitable than laboratory for learning new experiments.

1M-ING-02-D

RESPUESTA

1º medio / Inglés

Listening: viewpoints

B. Laboratory

1M-ING-02-A

RESPUESTA

1º medio / Inglés

Listening: viewpoints

Predict viewpoints before listening. Track who agrees, disagrees or changes their mind; “although” and “however” signal a shift.

1M-ING-02-C

RESPUESTA

1º medio / Inglés

Writing: opinion paragraph

Accept a clear position, two developed reasons, one fair counterpoint, coherent linking and 90–110 words.

1M-ING-03-D

RESPUESTA

1º medio / Inglés

Writing: opinion paragraph

B. However

1M-ING-03-A

RESPUESTA

1º medio / Inglés

Writing: opinion paragraph

Lead with a claim, develop two distinct reasons and illustrate one with a specific example. Link ideas with “because”, “for example” and “however”.

1M-ING-03-C

RESPUESTA

1º medio / Inglés

Speaking: mini presentation

Accept two feasible actions, a measure such as kg/week or number of bins, and audible logical transitions.

1M-ING-04-D

RESPUESTA

1º medio / Inglés

Speaking: mini presentation

C. In conclusion

1M-ING-04-A

RESPUESTA

1º medio / Inglés

Speaking: mini presentation

A short talk works best with a clear opening, two signposted points and a conclusion. Give precise examples, speak at a steady pace and listen to a follow-up question before answering it.

1M-ING-04-C

RESPUESTA